FRESH DISPUTE LOOMS IN SPAN SAFETY FIGHT

With considerable delay already threatened for the opening of the Carquinez bridge, scheduled for May 21, the American Toll Bridge company faces another difficulty in the controversy arising out of the demand of the Matson Navigation company that the bridge firm construct cofferdams to guard the two central piers of the bridge from possible damage should an ocean going ship drift into the 75-foot channel between the piers.

Approximately $1,000,000 would be required to construct such a cofferdam, mounting the total cost of the bridge from an original estimated cost of $4,000,000 to approximately $5,000,000, it was declared yesterday.

A masonry foundation as deep as the pier foundations sunk 120 feet below the surface of the straits would be necessary. In lieu of the cofferdams the toll bridge company has suggested that fenders costing approximately $250,000 be constructed.

The cofferdam, of a diamond shape, would shut ships off from the piers without damage to the bridge. The war department is now considering the controversy and will decide which type of protection must be provided for the piers.

The Matson company operates a steamship line between San Francisco bay and the Hawaiian Islands. Sugar cargoes are landed at the California-Hawaiian sugar refinery at Crockett adjacent to the new bridge.

The delay in the opening of the bridge to traffic has resulted from the refusal of Major John L. Skaggs, division engineer of the state highway commission, to allow Tesla Brothers, contractors working on the Crockett approach, to use dynamite to remove rock and earth from the right of way.

Jaywalking Is Taboo as New Traffic Rule Becomes Law

Jaywalking days are over in Richmond. The new traffic ordinance which prohibits this common pastime is being rigidly enforced. Patrolmen, motorcycle traffic officers, inspectors, sergeants, captain, and Chief Dan Cox himself kept wary eyes open yesterday, the first day in which the new ordinance was in effect, and "cross street" walkers were politely instructed on ways and manners of ambulating.

City Clerk A. C. Farris set an example for Richmond by walking in the newly approved fashion, in the business district.

Jaywalkers are contemplating the formation of an "Amalgamated Jaywalkers' Union." Their slogan is said to be: "Jaywalk or ride the street cars."

Robber Of Local Man Asks Parole

MARTINEZ, April 4.—Application for parole was today made by Bert Gerrett who was sentenced to life imprisonment in Folsom for the robbery of Virgil Reed, Richmond photographer, in 1919. It was said that a hearing into the appeal will be taken next Friday or Saturday at Folsom.

Gerrett in company with Irene Johnson, 19, held up and robbed Reed, and in addition an attempt at a wholesale jail delivery was made by Gerrett while in the county jail at Martinez.

Sheriff R. R. Veale, of Contra Costa county, declared that he would fight the move for parole by filing a protest with the board of prison directors.

Three Local Girls To Act In Greek Theatre Play

Three Richmond girls will participate in the Silver Jubilee production, "The Trojan Women," to be staged April 8 and 9 at the Greek theatre in Berkeley.

They are Miss Mary Olney, Miss Nell McGrew and Miss Patricia Stanley. Miss Olney and Miss McGrew will appear in the Grecian dance numbers, while Miss Stanley is in charge of designs and settings for the production.

CITY COUNCIL ENDORSES SAN PABLO TRANS- BAY TOLL SPAN

Application For Franchise To Huge Structure Is Presented Board

By an unanimous vote members present at the meeting of the city council last night were in record vote in favor of the construction of a toll bridge across San Pablo bay between Point San Pablo in Richmond to the Marin county shore.

The question was discussed by those present and it was the general opinion that a bridge connecting the two counties would be of untold benefit to Richmond.

The city clerk was directed to notify the board of supervisors of Contra Costa county that the Richmond council desires that a franchise be granted for the proposed bridge.

The application for the franchise was formally presented yesterday morning in Martinez. Next Monday morning at 10 o'clock was fixed as the time in which further hearing of the application will be made.

A delegation of 1000 boosters from Marin and Sonoma county backed the petitioners for the bridge franchise. Civic delegations will represent Richmond at the hearing next Monday.

The estimated cost of the bridge was said to be between $12,000,000 and $15,000,000 and that this sum was not excessive in view of the heavy traffic which would ensue between North Coast counties and Central California.

Roy O. Long, president of the Richmond San Rafael Bridge Incorporated filed the petition for the franchise and was strongly supported by Charles Derleth, Jr., of Berkeley consulting engineer for the project.

Derleth declared that no problems would be met in bridging San Pablo bay that could not be easily surmounted. The proposed length of the bridge, 14,000 feet, would make it much longer than the Carquinez straits bridge.

It was stated that the opening of such a bridge would be the making of Marin county and would throw open Sonoma, Mendocino, and other north shore counties to the east bay and Central California. Richmond would naturally benefit largely since it would be the eastern terminus of the bridge.

The only opposition which has so far been encountered came from the Richmond San Rafael Ferry company, which operates an automobile and passenger ferry between Richmond and Point San Quentin. Representatives of the company asserted that public necessity did warrant construction of the bridge and that the ferry handled all traffic adequately at the present time.

Mira Vistas Win In Fight Against Zone Encroachment

The city council of Richmond last night adopted the resolution of the city planning commission denying the application of real estate men to erect business buildings in the Mira Vista district.

A hearing was held at 8:15 p.m. yesterday by the planning commission to give residents of the district opportunity to voice their protest to the encroachment of the business section into what had originally been considered a strictly residential section.

Under the present zoning Mira Vista is listed as a residential section, and business is permitted only on San Pablo avenue frontage and for 100 feet inside on any street crossing San Pablo avenue.

Albert Hamberger requested permission to construct a store building on the northwest corner of Barrett and McLaughlin avenues, across the street from a proposed three-story building, application for which had been made by Earl Steele, real estate agent.

Immediately after the fact became known a large number of the residents of the district signed a protesting petition which was presented to the city planning commission.

8,218 ELIGIBLE TO VOTE HERE

With six candidates in the field for the three positions on the city council, registrations for the primary election April 25 show that there are 8,218 residents of the city who are entitled to cast ballots for the nominees, City Clerk A. C. Farris announced yesterday.

The candidates who have already filed their petitions are J. N. Hartnett, Mrs. Marie L. Ogden, incumbents; A. L. Paulsen, V. A. Fenner, Frank Roberts, and C. M. Patten. The petition of Mrs. Rens B. Laufer is in circulation but has not as yet been filed.

Hold Dry Agent On Liquor Count

A self-assured undercover prohibition agent for east bay authorities, Joseph Gualarte who gives his residence as Garvin avenue, Richmond, was taken into custody Sunday night by City Traffic Officer Wesley Zimmerman and is being held on an open charge in the El Cerrito city jail.

Gualarte was arrested for driving with 1926 license plates on his automobile, according to Zimmerman. Investigation revealed, it is reported, that there was a small amount of liquor in the car.

Horton declined to give any estimate of the extent of the find as it has just been broken into and there has not yet been time to make a careful examination.

The cross cut was started several days ago with the object of cutting under the rich badger hole discovered by Frank Horton, Jr., and Leonard Traynor, whose discovery was responsible for the Weepah stampede.

BIDS OPEN TO IMPROVE SAN PABLO AVENUE

Four Improvement Bids And Six For Sanitary Sewers Are Received

Four bids for the improvement of San Pablo avenue and six bids for the putting in of sanitary sewers on San Pablo avenue were opened at the meeting of the City Council here last evening.

All of the bids were referred to the city engineers and the city attorney for one week.

The bidders for the San Pablo avenue improvement were Hutchins Company, Warren Brothers, Central Construction company and the California Construction company.

While the total of each bid has been figured up, the bids on the different units would indicate that the California Construction company is the low bidder.

This improvement calls for a four inch rock cushion, six inches of asphaltic concrete in two layers, and a two inch sewerage surface of warrentite.

The bidders on the San Pablo avenue sewer were W. J. Tobin, L. L. Page, George G. DeGolyer, Manuel Costa, J. M. Hanley, and Thomas F. O'Leary. Page's bid was way under the other bidders, and it is believed the contract will be awarded to him.

Just as soon as the contracts are awarded work on both improvements will start immediately, and it is believed the contracts can be completed in the early part of the summer.

New Street Work

New street work was initiated by the council, when resolutions were adopted directing the city engineer to prepare plans and specifications for the improvement of Hensley, Northwest, Bailey, Monroe, Factory, East, Essex and Grichett streets.

Portions of Stege avenue, Potrero and Forty first streets are to be improved. City engineer Hoffman will prepare the plans. These streets will have a cushion of broken rock, and six inches of asphaltic concrete. The petitioners in both cases asked for a patented pavement, and Councilman Scott made the statement that it was his opinion that the open specifications in this territory would provide a good street for less money.

"The successful merchant must keep abreast of the times," Connolly declared, "and adapt his methods to meet the latest developments in the field of business."

The dinner was well attended by members of the association.

HUNDREDS ARE WOUNDED WHEN CHINESE RIOT IN CONCESSION

Situation Reported As Critical As Tension Grows Greater

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, April 5.—A large number of Americans will be slain in North China unless the Cantonese are halted in their march, it was admitted here tonight.

The danger has become so acute there that Admiral Clarence S. Williams, commander in chief of the American Naval Forces at Shanghai is holding some of his ships in readiness to send them to the northern ports of Tien Tsin and Tsing Tao.

The incident of American Blue Jackets who were guarding a refugee ship on the Yangtze near Shungking firing into Chinese boarders and probably killing one was dwarfed by developments beyond the Yangtze valley.

At the same time it was believed here that the American demands on the Cantonese govern-

GOOD 1927

Times are due to be good for almost everybody during the current year, say the Washington forecasters. But there are two exceptions—the farmer and the bituminous miner. The miner may have no income at all after April 1, and the farmer's chances are not so good as everybody wishes they were.

But people who have jobs have better incomes than ever before. An abundance of credit at low rates is made possible by a flood of gold pouring into this country from all over the world. An increasing manufacturing efficiency is resulting in lower prices for many products, which increases the sales. The railroads are able to handle greater volume of goods with less difficulty than ever before.

All these points to make for orderly prosperity. Now if the farmer will diversify his crops and increase his cooperative activities enough to keep his head above water until some method appears to give him permanent aid, and if the miners and operators can arrive at some solution of their problems, the country should be a happy place.

The man who overbuys his income, however, is going to be just as miserable as ever. But the man who buys sanely as well as generously has the best chance in the history of the world.

THE BEEF TARIFF

Here is another sidelight on the claim of some of the western agriculturists of the radical type, that the protective tariff does not benefit the farmers or the cattle-growers.

Representative Strong of Kansas has asked the Tariff Commission to investigate the importations of canned beef from Argentina into the United States, largely by American meat packers. This is claimed to be a serious injury to the cattle industry of the United States.

The tariff on cattle is from 1 1/2 to 2 cents a pound according to weight. The tariff on canned and preserved meat is 20 per cent ad valorem. It is claimed that this is not sufficient. It is said that the tariff on cattle is protective and tends to increase the amount of canned beef made from cattle in Argentina.

Men Who Made the World

THE QUEEN BENT WORD TO ROBIN HOOD OF HER WAGER WITH THE KING AND TOLD HIM THAT HE AND HIS TWO BEST ARCHERS WOULD CARRY HER COLORS IN THE MATCH. ROBIN HOOD AND HIS MEN WERE DELIGHTED. SO, THE FORMAL MATCH OVER, THE SPECIAL MATCH BETWEEN ROBIN, LITTLE JOHN AND STOUT WILL SCARLET, AND THE BEST THREE OF THE KING'S GUARD, COMMENCED. THE DENSE CROWD, FROM LOW DOWN LEARNED THAT THE THREE STRANGERS WERE THE FAMOUS OUTLAWS OF SHERWOOD FOREST. HERE UNDER PROTECTION OF THE KING AND QUEEN FOR FORTY DAYS, EXCITEMENT KNEW NO BOUNDS. IT WAS THE GREATEST MATCH THAT MERRIE ENGLAND HAD EVER KNOWN. WILL SCARLET LOST HIS MATCH BY THE NARROWEST OF MARGINS. THEN UP STEPPED LITTLE JOHN—THREE ARROWS SPED ALL CLOSE TO THE CENTRE OF THE TARGET. TEPUS FOLLOWED, BUT GOOD ARCHER AND STOUT YEOMAN AS HE WAS, HE WAS NO MATCH FOR LITTLE JOHN. SO THE SCORE STOOD ONE FOR THE KING AND ONE FOR THE QUEEN. NOW CAME THE BEST OF THE KING'S GUARD, GILBERT. THREE SHOTS HE LOOSED AND ALL THREE BURNED THEMSELVES CLOSE TO THE CENTRE OF THE TARGET.

WHAT, FEED A FEVER?

A woman writes that she was both amused and amazed at my disapproval of some principles of naturopathy submitted for my consideration by one J.R. "You say that in typhoid fever there comes a time when victory demands that the patient shall have good solid food. Surely, when the victory has been won and the patient is quite well, and then the good solid food has been given gradually, but no food at all while there is fever, unless we want to let the patient in for a lot of unnecessary trouble."

"Talking about dangerous things, I can't imagine anything more dangerous than feeding a patient with a serious inflammation of the stomach or intestines. A milk diet for ulcers of the stomach is all right, however."

Theoretically, this woman's views are quite orthodox. Twenty or 30 years ago we generally followed some such principle in the treatment of typhoid fever. When this woman declares it is dangerous to feed a patient with serious inflammation of the stomach or intestine (and any inflammation of the stomach or intestine is surely serious) she apparently means solid foods, for she thinks it is quite correct to feed the patient with ulcers of the stomach milk.

Probably the woman imagines there are ulcers in the stomach in typhoid fever. The ulcers in typhoid fever are in the lower portion of the small intestine.

I recall one case of typhoid fever which terminated fatally, with perforation of an ulcer, and in the necropsy a dense curd of milk was found in the perforation. This taught me, as no mere theory could, that milk is not necessarily a safer food than any other.

Scraped beef or other solid foods, I do not believe, scraped beef could cause perforation of an ulcer in the intestine or of an ulcer in the stomach, though I know that a curd of milk may do so, and no one can be sure that milk will not be converted into tough curds at one stage of digestion. By scraped beef I mean the pulp of a piece of steak, scraped out with a dull knife, and cooked to suit the patient's taste. Such food, when the typhoid fever patient craves food irrespective of the presence of fever, is safer than milk.

This woman would withhold all food until the patient is quite well, or at least she would withhold all solid food until the patient is quite well. The question is, could a human being get quite well after three or four, or five, weeks of fever and starvation, and I don't mean fasting, for I have never seen a typhoid fever patient who did not desire any food in the course of the fever—could such a patient get well? I doubt it, and I doubt it not understanding the fact that some well men have voluntarily fasted longer than five weeks and recovered good health afterward.

Nowadays wise healers—I don't care what brand you give, the healer—find that a more liberal allowance of food, solid food, the kind of food a sick man craves, not the "slops" we formerly insisted on giving him, not only sustains the patient's strength through the later weeks of typhoid fever but seems to shorten the duration of the illness and hasten convalescence. It is now pretty generally recognized that in our zeal to confine the patient to liquids or practically no food in the past, we worked against nature and added inflammation to the typhoid fever the patient was battling.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Can't Print As Is

I think the chief pessimist is the medical doctor that thinks all drugless healers are flukes. Another pessimist is the one who insists all must be vaccinated. Would like to see this letter in print. Yours, Will Jones.

Answer—I'd like to print it all as is, but I know I'd have to stand over the printers with a club to make them print your spelling as is. Your knowledge of vaccination is comparable with your knowledge of writing and spelling. I don't know what a pessimist is, but I agree that the healer who denies that exercise, diet, mental suggestion, massage or other manual manipulations, mechanical or physical therapy, medicines, serums or the aids of nature are necessary in the treatment of disease, is a dangerous person and should never have a license to deal with the sick at all. Unfortunately the people, that is the state, not only permits such dangerous persons to deal with the sick but very often singles them out and grants them a license without regard for their education or fitness for this great responsibility which we owe to the narrow caliber of the broken down, our legislators with their

Red Cough

For the last five years I have had a severe cough. Various physicians have failed to help me. It is not from my lungs, more from my throat and stomach. I smoke and drink moderately, but my cough racks my whole system.

Answer—Add to list of physicians who have failed to help you the name of William Brady, M.D., unless perchance you may think my advice is worth taking—cut out the drinking and smoking and cough doping and see what happens.

Chemist Takes Big Risk

I am a chemist employed by a large firm. Often the laboratory gets very stuffy and I raise a window. This invariably starts a war. Others in the room accuse me of endangering their health. The company health bulletin has put me in a hole by warning everybody to "beware of drafts."

Answer—I fear not. A mallet may help some. Is the company health bulletin written or edited by a committee of old women? Or does the company consider employees feeble minded? The warning sounds that way. The company probably doesn't know or care that the working efficiency of employees invariably decreases when the indoor temperature rises above 68 degrees F.

ROBIN HOOD NOW STRODE FORTH, STRONG AND STALWART, AND CLAD FROM HEAD TO FOOT IN ROYAL BLUE. ALL EYES WERE UPON HIM AS HE STEPPED SILENTLY TO HIS PLACE, FOR THE FAME OF ROBIN HOOD AND THE TALE THAT SURROUNDED HIM LENT GLAMOUR TO HIS NAME. CAREFULLY HE PICKED THREE SHOTS TO HIS LIKING, THEN EXAMINED HIS BOWSTRING. CONGRATULATING GILBERT ON HIS FINE SHOOTING, HE LOOSED AN ARROW AND THE SHAFI LOOSED NOT MORE THAN HALF AN INCH FROM THE TARGET'S CENTRE. AN EXCLAMATION OF SURPRISE BURST FROM GILBERT, BUT SILENCE HELD THE CROWD, AWED BY ARCHERY SUCH AS THEY HAD NEVER BEFORE SEEN. AGAIN ROBIN SHOT AND AGAIN HIS ARROW BURNED ITSELF CLOSE BESIDE THE CENTRE. A THIRD TIME, HIS BOWSTRING TWANGED AND THE ARROW DIPPED BETWEEN THE OTHER TWO IN THE VERY CENTRE OF THE TARGET SO THAT THE THREE SHOTS FROM A DISTANCE SEEMED ONLY ONE. A MURMUR OF ADMIRATION RAN THROUGH THE GREAT CROWD, FOR ENGLAND HAD NEVER SEEN SUCH SHOOTING AS THIS.

"DOWN AND OUT" IS HELPED

Readers of this department will remember the mother who wrote us to help her decide whether she should place her child, whose mental and physical development is delayed, in an institution. She told us about the gossiping neighbors who hinted "sins of the father" stuff, and of her own mind and body worn out with care and worry. Nevertheless, she feared to send her boy to an institution "with its padded cells and inhuman attendance" (her words).

I am proud of those who responded so nobly to her appeal. Your helpfulness and understanding in making this column a mighty human one. A few readers suggested that this spent mother cast her burden upon the Lord. A few believed that a mother's love alone would take care of the problem. A surprisingly large number told of experiences in their own families. These last letters "Down and Out Mother" tells me have helped her most of all.

In part she says to you all: "You know from my letter that I love my 10-year-old boy. I have spent all my money with famous surgeons and infamous quacks. I have stood the gossip of the neighbors with their innuendoes. I have tried to help myself and asked the Lord to help me. "Every letter which you were good enough to send me strengthened my belief and my courage. The letters from mothers who had been through experiences similar to mine helped me make up my mind."

"After reading these letters I realize that I must not ignore the scientific advantages of good institutional care. That my smiles, my prayers, my love are not alone sufficient, that the exercises and games I give him may not be the best for him, that the food he is getting may not be of the right sort. I have sacrificed, but now I will sacrifice to the limit. I will sacrifice my own pride and put him where he can be taken care of."

I congratulate you, "Down and Out," that you are now "up and coming." You displayed good judgment when you decided to place your child in an institution of merit. Our best wishes go out to you, courageous mother, and we pray for your son's progress.

Deportation Of Agitators In Labor War Gets Setback

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.

The practice of deporting labor agitators has received a sharp check by the decision of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco, reversing the action of the U. S. District Court of Spokane in the Rowan case. It was announced yesterday by the Northern California Committee of the American Civil Liberties Union.

By that decision James Rowan of Spokane, who had been deprived of his citizenship by the district court, was restored to citizenship by the higher court. Rowan, who was naturalized in 1907, was sent to Leavenworth during the war for alleged activities in antagonism to the government, and this fact was held by the district court as cause for cancelling his citizenship. The court of appeals in reversing this action takes the stand that acts committed so long after naturalization cannot be considered cause for cancellation of citizenship.

Mrs. F. H. Lods was named as delegate, and Mrs. Barber alternate to the reorganization meeting of the Claremont P.T.A., in Oakland, April 25.

PARADISE WITH MILTON SILLS IS AT RICHMOND

"Paradise," a First National picture, screened from an adaptation of Cosmo Hamilton's novel of the same name, is today's attraction at the Richmond theater, where it is opened yesterday.

Milton Sills is seen in the stellar role with Betty Bronson as his leading lady, and a brilliant supporting cast.

London and the south seas are the locales.

Sills appears to great advantage, and Betty Bronson adds much to the picture as a former stage dancer.

Kate Price and Charlie Murray keep you in a gale of laughter every time they flash on the screen. Noah Beery is rough and tough in the role of a scheming, low-down white who tries to kill Sills and steal Betty Bronson.

Lloyd Whitlock, as the "heavy," is happily cast and gives a polished performance.

"Paradise" is fine entertainment. It pleased the audience at the opening and should please others throughout the week. Producer Ray Rockett, one of the Rockett brothers who filmed "Abraham Lincoln," deserves much credit for his latest picture.

Other film features include the "Wide Open Spaces," a Hal Roach comedy; "Topics of the Day"; and "Aesop's Fables."

Charles Ray declares that if you have ever had a desire to visit a motion picture studio, squelch it right now. Ray believes it to be the most disillusioning process a picture fan can go through, and that he loses the illusion of reality, necessary to the enjoyment of a picture. Ray's latest appearance is as the hero of "The Fire Brigade," coming on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday to the California theater. May McAvoy plays opposite him in this Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer special.

Bert Woodruff, lovable old character actor, celebrated his 70th birthday by playing the role of "Pop" O'Neill in "The Fire Brigade." Woodruff began his stage career in 1873 and has been constantly in the theatricals ever since. May McAvoy and Charles Ray head the cast, which was directed by William Nigh.

Deceased was 33 years of age and is survived by a father and a brother in Oakland.

Funeral services for William Graff, Berkeley plumber, who dropped dead yesterday morning while at work at the Colonial hotel on the West Side, will be held Thursday, April 7, from the Niehaus funeral parlors, Berkeley. The body was removed to the Berkeley parlors late yesterday.

An investigation conducted by Coroner Aubrey Wilson showed that death was apparently due to heart trouble. Graff, an employee of Fred I. Kreis, of Oakland, who was formerly in business in Richmond, was helping carry a bath tub up the hotel stairs when he dropped his end of it and rolled to the floor. He was dead when physicians arrived.

Let It Rain

Douglas MacLean, who has role of smilin' Marine in "LET IT RAIN," now showing for the last time at the California theatre.

'LET IT RAIN' IS AT CALIFORNIA

"When Douglas MacLean turned weather prophet and said, 'Let It Rain,' he really meant, 'Let 'em laugh!'" Because, whether he knows it or not, "Let It Rain," his current Paramount release which arrived at the California theater last night, had that effect. An overflow audience was kept in ecstasies of joy for 70 snappy minutes.

"Let It Rain" presents MacLean as a marine who awakes from a lethargy only after meeting "the one girl." Then, seeing an officer gain her attention, he determines to win his chevrons. How he does this by capturing a troop of mail thieves and saving the government's honor, provides the comedy with a strong plot and plenty of laughs.

If you don't believe it, imagine what happens when Doug discovers himself aboard a mail train with two crooks. First, they get the upper hand; then he does; finally he ties one of them up in a mail sack and the prisoner starts his shooting through the canvas! Then, to make things even funnier, a third bandit, riding the brake rods, decides to cut the coach loose. And, the whole gang is marooned on a runaway train, which continues speeding down steep mountain grades.

Shirley Mason is Doug's bit of sunshine in "Let It Rain." Eddie Cline directed. See the picture. It won't wet your feet, is guaranteed to dry the tears and will positively deliver at least one smile per second!

Other features include the sixth thrilling chapter of "The House Without a Key"; "Topics of the Day"; "Aesop's Fables"; and Larry Canelo, at the organ.

FILM RAFFLES RAIDS HOUSES DURING PARTY

(By Universal Service)
LOS ANGELES, April 4.—Is there a raffles in the motion picture colony? Recent robberies that have taken place in the homes of various well known Hollywood film folk indicates that the thief is a woman who operates best when there are army guests in the house. Most of the pilfered articles are feminine apparel and accessories that would appeal only to a woman, and in most cases they were stolen while a party was in progress.

Lois Weber, the famous director, is one of the latest victims of the thief's mania for feminine frippery. Miss Weber is probably the heaviest loser to date for not only was her ermine coat, valued at $400 taken from her home in Hollywood, but other evening wraps, Spanish shawls and all of her best and most expensive clothes were removed at the same time. The toll in this case was particularly heavy for most of the dresses stolen were in Miss Weber's trunk when she married Captain Harry Gantz a few months ago.

An almost similar case is that of Mrs. Ben Jackson, wife of the business manager of the Fox company. Mrs. Jackson had recently received eight beautiful hand-some pieces of lingerie from Paris. She spoke enthusiastically of her gift and showed the various pieces to some of her guests. A few days later and presto change, Mrs. Jackson discovered the step-ins, combination suits and delicate undergarments had all disappeared as well as three or four evening dresses and wraps.

While most of the losses have been women's clothes, the thief does not overlook money and other valuables. A gold cigarette case, inlaid with jewels and coral and a jewel studded perfume bottle were taken from the home of Bess Meredith while an evening party was in progress. The thief in this case did not concentrate on the hostess, but spread the activities to the guests. One guest had $16.00 in money and a perfume bottle removed from a bead purse while another guest found twenty dollars missing from her purse which she also left in a bedroom with her wrap.

Most burglars choose to do their robbery while the house is dark, but this supposed woman raffles works best when there is laughter, gaiety and music. Her daring deeds are the center of discussion in Hollywood and when the arrest is made it will be one of the most interesting stories of the year.

He drove night and day and apparently becoming confused when he reached the bay region continued on northward finally falling asleep at the wheel and going into a ravine. He walked several miles seeking help before his plight was discovered.

Scum Fill Dance Halls Says Minister

BAKERSFIELD, April 4.—"We have enough dance halls where all the scum of the community can walk in—enough work now as guardians, I hope, of the public morals, without adding to our burdens," said Rev. A. F. Hasse today to the board of supervisors in protesting the issuance of a dance hall license to the Portuguese colony for dances near Union avenue plunge. Rev. Hasse, with Rev. J. D. Page, appeared before the board of supervisors as delegates from the Ministerial Association.

The board granted the dance hall license over the Ministerial protest.

Salm Marriage Tangle Resolves Into Knot As Both Count And Millicent Refuse 'Marital Life'

(By Universal Service)
PARIS, April 4.—The Salm matrimonial tangle is taking definite shape as a cordian knot, which only the count's millionaire father-in-law, Colonel H. H. Rogers, will be able to cut.

As the matter stands today, with Millicent freely admitting that her suit for divorce already has been filed in Paris, with her noble husband quitting the French capital in a theatrical huff directly after the papers had been served on him at his modest hotel at Matignon, nothing seems more unlikely than a clear-cut decree solving this unusual marital problem.

Everything, in fact, would be plain sailing with a decree in favor of Millicent certain, if the count had not responded immediately to Millicent's "refusal to resume marital life" grounds with a counter suit for a "separation" on grounds exactly similar.

Now the count has no difficulty whatever to prove his wife's emphatic refusal to return to him, and such proof would leave no choice to a French justice but to grant Salm a decree de plano. At the same time, as Millicent is suing for a "divorce," there is no doubt that her lawyer supplied the French courts with evidence showing that the count, at some time or other, refused to live with his wife.

Under the circumstances, the learned judge can only suggest that the parties agree among themselves, either on a separation or a divorce, and, if so, will hand down the decision on "reciprocal wrongs."

The question, therefore, now to be decided is whether Millicent, who today stated: "I am through with married life and intend to live in Paris and never marry again," is willing to accept a separation, as insisted upon by her husband, and which will tie her up legally for life and effectively prevent her from ever re-marrying.

The count, say his friends, sees no reason why there should be a divorce and owing to family traditions, prefers a separation.

Should Millicent decline a separation and insist upon a divorce, and should Colonel Rogers' lawyer fail to submit to the count arguments sufficiently strong and capable of convincing him of the greater advantages of divorce over separation, the judge will have no alternative but to dismiss the case on the ground of "no jurisdiction."

The Old Gray Mare Makes Macdonald Ave. In '10 Flat'

Children screamed, women clutched handy supports, and strong men joined in a chorus of hearty "WHOAS" as old Dobbin started a furious marathon down Macdonald avenue yesterday morning. He never had liked "gas wagons" and ice wagons were his pet abhorrence. Even the smell of a piece of ice was enough to make the venerable horse snort with anger and roll expressive eyeballs.

Yesterday was no exception to the rule. Dobbin did not realize that the avenue was crowded—and in fact, it was not crowded thirty seconds after he started his rampage. He covered two blocks in Charley Paddock style until, lo and behold, an unidentified stranger seized old Dobbin by the halter strap. Dobbin puffed noisily for a few minutes then bowed his head in submission.

P. Balagoo, farmer of the Giant district, claimed the animal and drove away. Dobbin was observed to sniff eagerly for the chance of an ice wagon.

My, How That Girl Loved Children

(By Universal Service)

LOS ANGELES, April 4.—Federal income tax officials began an investigation here today of the unusual pre-nuptial agreement which J. F. White, wealthy mining man, claims to have made with his wife to set aside $100,000 for every time a child was born to the union. White was sued last year by Ann Luffier, film actress, for breach of contract, alleging that he had failed to carry out an agreement to spend $100,000 to star her in motion pictures. She lost the suit. The government is suing White for $251,120.72 for income taxes.

RICHMOND HIGH PLAYS WARRIOR TEAM TODAY

Probably batteries for today's game: Richmond: Anderson and Swenson. For the McClintock's: Williams and Araso. R. U. H. S. will meet the Warriors at Oakland this afternoon. This is the second annual game between the two schools. The game of last year resulted in a 4 to 3 defeat for the Oakland school as a result of Ernie Barber's ability to hit in the pinches. Yesterday evening the date originally set for the encounter, but owing to the track meet, it was thought that the absence of Coach Hill would be too much for the locals and the contest was postponed one day. Acorns were runner-up for the O. A. L. championship last year, being nosed out of the bunting by a one game margin. To date the Oilers have won three games and lost a like number. The first three games of the season were lost, but R. U. H. S. came through to capture its next three encounters. Berkeley, Martinez and Roosevelt were all humbled in rapid succession by the locals.

"Flocky" Williams is slated to take his turn on the Warrior hill-top against Richmond this afternoon, with Anderson doing the chores for Richmond.

Williams was knocked out of the box in the third inning last year against R. U. H. S. Six hits coupled with two walks spelled his downfall. This afternoon he hopes to get even with the Oilers. If Williams is pitching for McClintock this afternoon the locals expect little trouble as to the outcome of the affair.

Walter Hagen Puts Foot In It This Time

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., April 4.—Walter Hagen, holder of the American professional golf championship, for the last three years, was ordered by doctors whom he consulted here today to stay off his feet for at least ten days, in order to cure what physicians describe as an aggravated case of bone irritation in the ball of his left foot. Hagen has been suffering the sore foot since the Texas open in January.

In February Hagen made a special trip to Springfield, Ill., to be treated by orthopedic specialist there. At times the swelling has been so great he has had difficulty getting his shoe on.

The P. G. A. champion announced he would cancel all his scheduled matches up to April 15 and would rest longer if necessary.

New Wing of Peres School Is Dedicated

With appropriate ceremonies participated in by school authorities, members of the Parent-Teachers' association and pupils of the school, the new wing of the Peres grammar school was dedicated last night in the school auditorium. City Superintendent W. T. Helms, in the principal talk of the evening, outlined the rapid growth of the school since it was first erected. He pointed out the growth of school attendance in comparison with the erection of new schools, and said that the new wing of the school filled a long-felt need.

Coroner Aubrey Wilson also addressed the gathering, commenting upon the new addition, which cost in the neighborhood of $50,000. The wing includes a large auditorium and six class rooms.

A feature of the exercises was the presentation by the Ku Klux Klan of a large silk American flag to the pupils of the school. The flag was accompanied by a letter from Klan authorities.

The dedication exercises were concluded with a program presented by the school pupils.

INSTALL GAS PUMP

Richmond Feed & Grain company was granted permission last evening by the council to install a five-gallon gasoline pump in front of their place of business at No. 29 Seventeenth street.

HARDWARE 9 IS FORMED IN RICHMOND

Eight stars recruited from the high school baseball team and several members of the Standard Oil league have agreed to play baseball under the R. B. Dougall's Hardware colors. The new team will enter the Spalding summer league, playing a 21 game schedule. Gordon, who was offered a contract with the Pacific Sanitary Manufacturing company, has declined the offer to play with the Dougall nine.

Archie Kimball is manager of the club. Kimball will recall that Archie made quite a record with a semi-pro team around Denver, Colorado. He formed a left-handed battery. Kimball was the left-handed catcher. Perhaps, this was the reason that Western league scouts quit dickering with him after this fact was revealed. However, his battery mate made good in both the Western and Southern Associations.

Bunny Muth or Kenneth Swenson will be the club's first string catcher. At this writing Swenson has the edge for first string honors. Muth caught quite a few games for the Refinery club of the Standard Oil league last year. Swenson has an enviable reputation at the local high school.

Merle Anderson, John Medo, and possibly Jimmie Viverious will be the pitching staff. Anderson managed to pitch some of the games for Fresno high last year, despite the fact that Howard Craghead now with the Oaks, was setting a dizzy pace.

Joe Baldwin will be first base guard. Joe is all that can be expected of him from a fielding standpoint, but his batting is not quite up to standard.

Carl Pinto will hold down the keyhole sack. Carl is a fast and shifty little player with plenty of experience.

Walter Gordon, who pastimes in a big league style, will be on hand to cover the short patch. Gordon has not made an over act in short for the high school nine this season. He is batting .333 for the R. U. H. S. team.

Hirth or Williams will draw pay for playing third base. In the event that Hirth beats out Williams for the short stop job Williams will be shifted to third base.

Mayle, Baldwin, and Glum will compose the outfield trio for the Dougall aggregation. All three flycatchers are strong at the stick and excellent fly ball gatherers.

Next Sunday the Dougall's will journey to Oakland to meet some fast Oakland semi-pro club.

TROOPS CALLED FOR CHICAGO'S POLL STRUGGLE

By WILEY S. SCHLESNER

(By Universal Service)

CHICAGO, April 4.—How to avoid bloodshed and violence at the polls tomorrow was the chief problem confronting the authorities tonight as the mayoralty campaign came to a close.

Troops will not be called unless some overt act is committed. This was definitely determined early tonight after an all day conference between Adj. Gen. Charles Black, Major General Roy D. Keen, Chief of Police Morgan Collins and Sheriff Graydon.

Sheriff Graydon withdrew his formal request for troops, made to Governor Len Small last Saturday, after Chief of Police Collins assured the military authorities that his forces would be able to cope with the situation.

First squads of special police armed with machine guns went on duty tonight. They will be augmented by increased forces tomorrow morning an hour before the polls open.

Chicago's black belt, where approximately 200,000 negroes are crowded in a few blocks, is being guarded.

Crowds jammed the streets tonight, joining in demonstrations for their favorite candidate. Bands mounted on auto trucks, with banners flying, paraded through the streets.

Last minute statements issued from the campaign headquarters of the three contending candidates reflected confidence, especially in the case of William Hale Thompson, republican nominee and Mayor William E. Dever, democratic nominee. Claims of Dr. John Dill Robertson were more conservative.

Dever headquarters claimed the mayor had made phenomenal gains during the last three days and that he would be elected by 160,000. The Thompson forces claimed the former mayor would be elected by a majority of between 150,000 and 200,000. But there was no denying that Mayor Dever had developed great strength in the closing hours of the campaign. Betting remained even on the two leading candidates. There was no Robertson money.

The negro question loomed above all other issues in the closing hours. Inflammatory doggers were scattered throughout the city. "Two hundred thousand negroes working in the stock yards and all over Chicago will demand more public offices for negroes, and if Thompson is elected there will be twice as many negroes appointed to public office and working all over our city," read one of the statements.

The people also were told in these handbills that election of Thompson would start a black tide from the south that would engulf the common white laborers of Chicago.

On the Thompson side the Dever Republican supporters were told that if Dever is elected it will be a blow to President Coolidge, that it will strengthen the chances of the nomination of Governor Al Smith of New York in the coming democratic presidential convention. That this line of argument was having effect was admitted by observers.

Governor Small and Senator Duggan came to the support of Thompson in the last minute, contending this defeat would hurt the party nationally.

Threats of violence, talk of calling troops and arming police with machine guns tended to intimidate voters in some wards.

TRACKSTERS OF R. U. H. S. COME 2ND IN MEET

In a track meet held at the Berkeley field yesterday afternoon Berkeley high placed first with 81 points, R. U. H. S. was second with 25 markers, while Oakland high was a measly third with 22 tallies. Berkeley started out by capturing the mile, thereby giving them a lead of six to nothing in the first event. Olsen, of Richmond, was a second place winner. Two weeks ago R. U. H. S. met Fremont and Oakland at Fremont with R. U. H. S. trouncing Oakland high by a 17 point margin. Despite the strong showing of the college city lads which centered in the fact that the Oilers and Acorns were fighting tooth and nail for the upper hand, Olsen, Clark, Baldwin and Scarella were the high point men for the locals. Dixon won fourth place in the high hurdles.

Most of the events were continued walkways for Berkeley. In the relay R. U. H. S. made strong bid for first place, but in the last lap were nosed out by three or four yards.

Many Richmond prep lads crowding the bleachers, attended the meet with Oakland high having quite a roofing section for themselves.

BURGLAR TAKES MANTLE CLOCK

"A man's house is his castle" and the "building burglar" who has been operating extensively in Richmond, believes that to be a home a castle must be palatial indeed. The recording angel called "Time" Sunday night as the burglar reached through an open window at the home of Mrs. B. C. Busson, 401 A street, and purloined a mantle clock valued at $25.

Then, it is thought, the burglar tearfully surveyed his automobile shivering in the cold as it awaited the result of his transgressions. With every impulse that is noble the burglar proceeded to the home of J. H. Lockwood, 3926 Ohio avenue, and took a canvas 14 by 15 from an automobile in the garage.

No tumbled down shacks for the building burglar. He has thus far annexed several sacks of cement, 100 feet of board fence, bundles of laths, two sacks of laundry, wearing apparel fished from many lines, a carpet sweeper, and a pot of ferns.

ACTION TAKEN FOR SPECIFIC TAX CUTTING

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, April 4.—The first administration move for specific tax reduction next December was made today when Acting Secretary of the Treasury Ogden L. Mills advocated repeal of the federal inheritance tax.

A powerful drive is being prepared, backed by many members of both houses of congress, to abolish this levy. With the Democrats for the most part arrayed in opposition and supported by the Progressives, this issue promises to be one of the hardest fought in the tax reduction programs.

Although Mills was silent as to other phases of reduction, leaders of both parties showed favor to a cut of at least one percent in the corporation tax rate and repeal of the amusement tax. Repeal of the automobile tax and revision of income rates also will be demanded with prospects of strong opposition.

Failure of income collections to increase as radically as expected, coupled with shrinkage of back tax collections, will limit the entire reduction to $250,000,000 or $300,000,000, it was estimated today.

A surplus of approximately half a billion dollars in June was predicted by Mills, despite the limited increase in collections. It will be pushed toward this figure by unexpected gains in miscellaneous receipts, from sale of railroad securities and other items, he pointed out.

Heavy losses of revenue from the inheritance tax will be emphasized in support of its repeal. From $120,000,000 last year its yield has dropped to about $72,000,000 this year, according to Mills. He forecast a revenue next year of only about $40,000,000.

Steve Thevenin Held On Local Traffic Charge

With a six months suspended jail sentence hanging over his head for participation in disposing of the loot stolen from the Princeton Knitting Mills, Steve Thevenin, of San Pablo, was arrested Sunday night, by Patrolmen James Eads and Frank Fray of the police department on a charge of reckless driving.

Thevenin pleaded guilty to the charge in the court of Justice of the Peace John Roth yesterday. He is said to have driven at Fourth street and Macdonald avenue while he did not have full control of his machine. Sentence will be imposed today.

Thevenin and R. J. Jackson disposed of $800 worth of knitted goods stolen from the Princeton Knitting Mills in January. Thevenin received a sentence of six months suspended sentence following his plea of guilty to a charge of petit larceny. County authorities are now considering Jackson's plea for probation.

Beer Gangster Shot In Poll Gang War

(By Universal Service)

CHICAGO, April 4.—Vincent "Scheher" Drucel, leader of the powerful north side beer gang, was shot and killed by a policeman late today in the first of a series of election roundups.

Drucel was arrested in front of the Commonwealth hotel by a squad of policemen. He made an attempt to get his gun and Detective Dan Healy shot him dead. Drucel, who was said to be a supporter of William Hale Thompson, Republican, was believed to have lined up his henchmen to create havoc at the polls tomorrow.

Drucel assumed control of the north side gangsters following the machine gunning last October of Earl Hymie Weiss.

It was also learned that aside from warning the Cantonese that they must pay for the loss of American life and property they were informed that they could expect American naval forces to go into action on a large scale where American lives and property are menaced.

Two Destroyers on Patrol
In North China, which is regarded as the territory extending from the Yangtze to Peking hundreds of Americans are cut off from the protection of the American naval forces who cannot reach the remote inland towns.

Many of the Americans are finding their way into the North China Port of Tsing Tao where the American destroyer Pillsbury and a large part of the American fleet are on patrol. Others are finding their way into Tsin Tsin where the American Cruiser Ashcroft is waiting to protect them.

JOINT PROTEST
(By Universal Service)
LONDON, April 4.—A joint note of protest over the Nanking outrages will not be sent to the Cantonese authorities by the United States, Great Britain and Japan, according to authoritative information obtained tonight.

Separate notes of protest will be sent to the Cantonese by each of the three powers concerned. It was revealed, which will be either identical or parallel.

GRAVE AT HANKOW
(By Universal Service)
SHANGHAI, April 4.—The situation tonight at Hankow is extremely grave, reports reaching Shanghai, indicate.

Rioting crowds of infuriated Chinese attacked the Japanese concession at Hankow and were not checked until the Japanese resorted to machine guns.

Nineteen rioters were killed and scores wounded, according to reports.

Warning has been given to the Nationalists at Hankow that the warships of the powers will bombard unless all attacks on concessions cease.

Apprehensive of serious incidents, all foreigners at Hankow are evacuating the place rapidly. There are approximately 2400 foreigners at Hankow, including 100 Americans.

Refugees from Hankow are en route to Shanghai on the Japanese ships Tatu, Welling, Taheng and Mitsuki.

Mira Vistas Win In Fight Against Zone Encroachment

commission last Monday afternoon when the zone change came up for hearing. Inasmuch as the petitioners were not present the hearing was set over until last night.

FIFTY ATTEND
More than 50 residents of Mira Vista attended the hearing and bitterly opposed any extension of the business district which would make rezoning necessary.

"The thing that makes Richmond is the people who live here," declared one dissenter. "Factories are important, but the homes are the things that count. The reason that people located in Mira Vista was solely because they were given to understand that the district would be entirely residential. The people who live there are the best judges into whether they want business or not."

"The city planning commission will be setting a precedent if rezoning is decided upon. Once business buildings are erected an extension will be made."

E. M. Tilden and J. F. Brooks, pioneers in Mira Vista declared that abundant opportunity existed on San Pablo avenue for business houses, and that the avenue was vacant for blocks on either side of Barrett, which was an inlet to Mira Vista, and therefore should be kept free from mercantile establishments.

ROOM FOR 150,000
Dr. Aronovici, consultant for the city planning commission, revealed the fact that there is enough business property in Richmond which has not as yet been utilized for building which would accommodate a population of 150,000.

Members of the commission are George Fredenburg, chairman; Walter T. Helms, Mayor; Mattie Chandler, City Attorney; Thomas M. Carlson, City Engineer; E. J. Hoffman, Councilman; E. J. Gardner, George N. Rooker, City Building Inspector; A. J. Hurley and J. O. Ford.

"The case is closed as far as I am concerned," he said, "I am sorry to hear that Mrs. Hart is reopening it again in any manner at all, but our son is a fine boy and I wish I could see him right now."

SEINE FISHERS ARRESTED FOR LAW VIOLATION

squad of wardens from the state fish and game commission, led by J. L. Bundock.

The arrests were made following a several hours' vigil by the officers in district 12, just south of Pinole. The men are alleged to have been fishing with a seine in the restricted district when the game wardens suddenly stepped out close to the waters' edge and commanded the nocturnal fishermen to suspend operations. They did, and were promptly placed under arrest, making no effort to get away in their power boat.

One of Many Arrests
The arrest was one of a number made recently, by operatives of the fish and game commission, in a concerted effort to put a stop to the practice of bay fishermen of fishing in prohibited areas. The sandy shore just south of Pinole is said to be the most favorable spawning ground for the striped bass, with the result that fishermen find it most prolific in yielding large catches.

Fishing in the district was prohibited a number of years ago after the waters of the bay had been greatly depleted of striped bass as a result of the illegal methods of commercial fishermen. A rigid campaign to end the practice of taking fish from restricted areas was commenced, with the result that in a comparatively short time illegal fishing had been checked by the authorities.

During the past few months, however, commercial fishermen are said to have been again up to their old tricks and fishing in the prohibited district. A more strict watch than usual was instituted lately by the commissioners, and the arrest yesterday was the result of the campaign to curb the illegal practices of bay fishermen.

PAVING OF SAN PABLO AVENUE TO BE RUSHED

Paving of San Pablo avenue from Manilla avenue to the southern boundary will probably be done this summer, according to the action of the board of trustees of El Cerrito last night, when they passed a resolution of intention for the improvement. San Pablo avenue on the west side and the present concrete highway will be paved with a two-inch Warrenton wearing surface, and gutters, curbs and sidewalks constructed.

The date of protest has been set for Monday at 8:30 p.m. April 25.

Applications for dance permits made by Joe Rossi and R. Gaymire a week ago, were withdrawn.

City Attorney Wilbur S. Pierce was instructed to prepare a traffic ordinance making San Pablo avenue a stop boulevard and fixing the speed limit in different zones on the avenue and regulating the parking of automobiles.

Trustee Frank McDerriott stated the street cars should be made to slow down, so the attorney was instructed to consult the traction company.

An ordinance regulating the keeping of fowls and providing that they be kept in enclosures passed its first reading.

Trustee Fred Lutz reported that Donald Street was in a very bad condition after the rains and it should be repaired. Street Commissioner George Conlon stated that it would be taken care of.

A petition to pave Pomona avenue north of Stockton avenue was laid over for one week.

Free telephone service for the city marshal, clerk and night patrolman, starting April 1, was granted El Cerrito, according to a letter from B. A. Glover, of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. The city asked for the free service about two weeks ago on the suggestion of Trustee Phil A. Lee.

On the recommendation of Street Commissioner George Conlon the board appropriated $25 for the construction of a culvert in the Richmond Junction Heights tract.

Now In Russia They Make Bombs!

BAKERSFIELD, April 4.—G. O. Meyers, East Bakersfield youth, residing on North Baker street, was seriously injured last evening when a home-made bomb which he and another youth manufactured, exploded before he could run to safety.

The two boys found several high power rifle bullets in a plowed field and proceeded to extract the powder, mix it with gravel and place the mixture in a tin can. Working with potassium nitrate and sulphur, the youthful experimenters manufactured additional powder, placed it in the can and then trailed a quantity of it from the container for a fuse. They believed the home brand of powder would burn slowly enough to allow them to run to safety. It didn't. The Meyers boy was caught in the explosion and a piece of flesh, the size of a man's hand, was blown from the calf of his leg. His entire body was also cut by tiny particles of sand and powder.
